

Basic Instructions

start building from the bottom making sure it is square some larger models require you to join the two sections as above A to B C to D only applies if you have purchased model with dormer window

